GERMAN BENEVOLENT SOCIETY. -On Tuesday evening, 4th inst., at the annual election, held by the German Benevolent Society of this place, at their hall, corner of King and Columbus streets, the following members were elected to serve for the ensuing year: President, Charles Brill; Vice do., John Wenzel; Treasurer, George Bossart; Secretary, John Abinshein; Vice do., Adolf Didle; Revisors, Frederick Paff and John Gerheasen. After the election the Society enjoyed the good things of this life, provided in profusion, and enlivened the occasion with sweet melodies of the fatherland. The Society was chartered in 1854, and has remained in good repute, having promptly paid all just demands made on the Treasury, which is in an excellent condition.

ROBBERY.-Private Watchman Ward, last night, discovered that some parties had entered the dry goods store of Mr. R. L. Wood, S. W. corner of King and Fairtax streets, and were engaged in carrying off goods, placing them in the vacant lot next to the residence of Mr. J. J. Wheat, on Fairfax street, and had succeeded in getting out quite a pile of various articles, when the robbery was discovered. The thieves succeeded in evading detection, but were unable to carry off their plunder, except a few shirt collars and about a dollar in change taken from one of the counter drawers. The store was entered by prizing open the front door.

ANOTHER RADICAL MEETING .- Another Radical meeting was held at Lyceum Hall, last night, which was largely attended by blacks, including one old woman, and a few whites. Speeches were made by a white man named Dudley, from Washington, and a colored man, who was introduced as "the Honorable Mr. Langston," from Ohio. Langston's address partook more of the character of a temperance lecture than a political speech, and his advice, to his race, in reference to whiskey, tobacco, liberty, and labor were in many respects excellent. He is a fluent speaker, but quite ego-

FESTIVAL - Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a number of ladies and gentlemen and children attended the festival, at the Assembly rooms, for the benefit of Olivet Chapel, last night. The floral display was beautiful-the strawberries of the largest size, and most delightful flavor, and the ice cream rich and delicious; the festival and feast being only surpassed by the intelligence, grace and beauty of the ladies whose taste and skill had arranged and prepared the entertainment, which will be continued to night, and it is hoped, will be well attended.

A., L. & H. R. R. - The arrival and departure of the trains, daily, from Leesburg, infuse life and business activity in this community. -A large quantity of flour and grain is being shipped to Alexandria. This is but a mere promise of what Loudoun is going to do the coming season. The Ware-house, at the Leesburg Depot, will be built the coming week; the timbers are all ready to be put up, which will require but a few days. The energy and enterprise displayed by the President of the Company, in pushing this improvement forward is highly commendable, and for which, he has the thanks of this county .- Leesburg Washingtonian.

THE MARKET, this morning, owing to the storm, was not as well attended as is usual on the last day of the week, by the people from the country. There was, therefore, only a tolerable supply. Green Peas 371 a 50 cts. per peck; strawberries 15 a 20 cts. per quart .-Early Yorks from 5 to 15 cts. per head; lettuce, radishes, onions, &c., cheap. The Butchers had good supplies of fresh meat, at former prices. The price of beef is declining in the Northern markets. Sturgeon in great abundance at from 3 to 4 cts. per tb.

SELL AT HOME. - One of our commission merchants, a day or two since, received a consignment of wheat, half of which he shipped to Georgetown, and the remainder sold here. He was induced to try the Georgetown market on account of the reports from there of high prices, good demand, &c., while the market chasers, will be offered, at public auction, on here was somewhat dull. The wheat was sold TUESDAY MORNING next, the 11th instant, in both markets on the same day, the price warehouse, Union street. here being ten cents a bushel more than that obtained in Georgetown. Comment is unnecessary, only we advise merchants to sell at home.

ALEXANDRIA MANUFACTURES.-We are pleased to note sales of cotton goods, made at the Mt. Vernon Factory, in this place, for ed, as the carriages can be furnished from $5 the South American trade. The goods manufactured at this factory stand in deservedly high repute wherever they have been tried, and the demand for them is steadily increasing The Peabody brand of cotton-a new brandis very popular, and the orders for it exceed the supply. It is with great pleasure we chronicle the success of our manufactures.

STRAWBERRIES.-We have received from Mr. John Slater, several boxes of the largest and most delicious strawberries we ever saw, grown in his garden, near this city.

A N. E. STORM of rain and wind set in yesterday afternoon, and continued all night, and this morning. The inclemency of the weather prevented out of door business.

WASHINGTON ITEMS. - In the Circuit Court, yesterday, in the case of James Corbett vs. the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff, awarding him $7,500 damages. The suit was for $20,000 damages. The counsel for the railroad company have made a motion for a new trial. The radical mass meeting in front of the city hall was, in point of numbers, one of the largest meetings ever held in this city. The crowd was made up almost exclusively of colored people, although here and there a white face was to be

The temperance people had yesterday made arrangments for a procession and mass meeting, but were compelled to postpone it on account of the rain. It is probable that the 4th of July will be selected as the time for the celebration. Major Richards has ordered that a detective officer shall be at the depots and wharves upon the arrival and departure of every train or boat. This seems to be absolutely necessary as depredations upon personal property are frequently committed at the times and places.

BLACKBERRY WINE. - We are indebted to a friend for a present of some fine Blackberry Wine, nearly as good as Port, and much better than most wine that is now sold for Port. The making of Blackberry Wine is on the increase in this part of the State, and as it is cheap, oan easily be manufactured, is wholesome, and useful in all families, we hope that our housewives may turn their attention to it, this summer, more than ever.

Business.-Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather, to-day, King street has presented a very lively appearance, and business with the dry goods and grocery merchants has been active. On the wharves there is less bustle, and the rain has to some extent prevented out-door

THE REVENUE BILL.-We learn that the Committee of Council to whom was re-committed the Revenue bill, have had the same under consideration, but have been unable to agree, and will so report to Council.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET JUNE 8, 1867 The market closes very dull, with a declining tendency in prices. Flour quiet, with limited transactions. Wheat very dull, with sales of red at 240. Offerings of Corn, on 'Change, today, reached 4,200 bushels, for which 90 and 92 was offered, but refused. After 'Change there were sales at 95, but a good deal went into store. Rye and Oats quiet, with no transactions re-

The general tone of feeling in financial and commercial centres is more cheerful, in consequence partly of the debt statement being more favorable than was anticipated, and partly of the assurance that no further contraction of the greenback currency will, at present, be attemptd, but chiefly because of the belief in a copious harvest, of which the indications are increasing daily. There was some slight activity at the Baltimore Stock Board yesterdey. Gold advanced a trifle, closing at 1364. Governments were steady and unchanged. Virginia 6s, old, sold at 447. The business in miscellaneous stocks was inconsiderable.—Balt. Sun.
